P.S.: At an event last week for the Calfee School Guide, designer Bill Cahan, party host, said he had met founder Patricia Calfee when her dog bit his dog at Crissy Field. Calfee's work is to go into public schools and help middle school students choose high schools. San Francisco schools Superintendent Carlos Garcia, who was also there, said he had met her walking his dog at Crissy Field, too. Networking is a four-legged concept.
